We May
Never Pass
This Way Again

MGC - Middle Georgia College - The College in the Middle of Everything! 1980-81 started out much like any other college year. new friends • a new way of life for many • for some - a beginning . . . for some - a continuation • for each student, something different and special • for all - we may never pass this way again!

Classes

Classes. The main reason for attending college is education. The classes were a breeze, a challenge, a headache, an ulcer and a necessity.

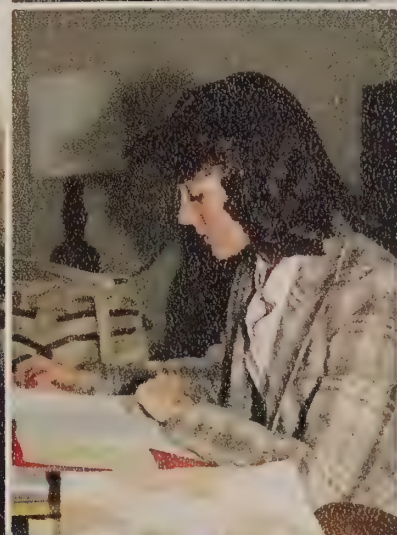

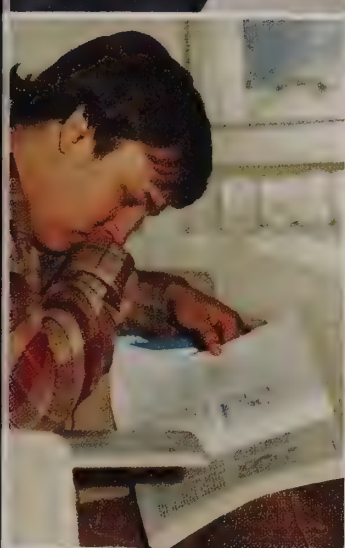

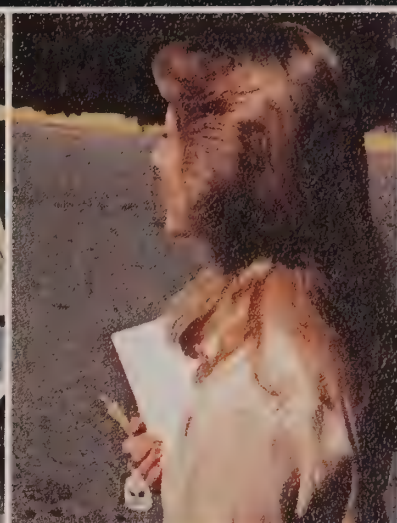

Friends for one year or friends for a lifetime . . .

... but we may never pass this way again!

Extracurricular Activities

College is a place for learning, but also it is a place for activities. After - class activities are a vital part of the college career. The dances • the drama productions • the student publications • the organizations • the sports • the movies • the festivals and carnivals • all were a part of MGC - 1980-81.

Final Convocation

Homecoming Float Building

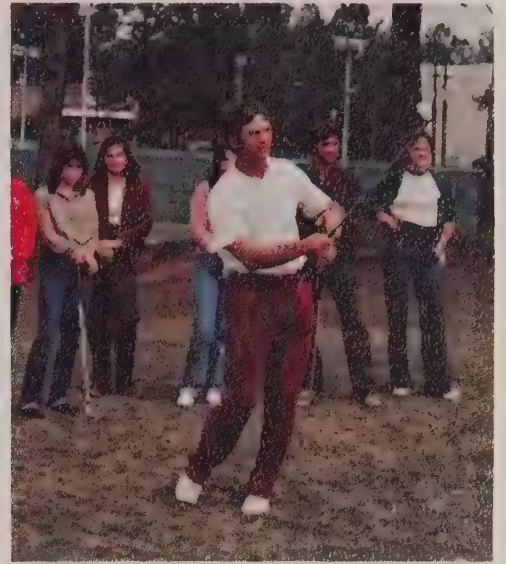

MGC's Annual Halloween Masquerade Dance

Mountaineering in ROTC

Hilltopper Distribution

Fall Quarter Blood Drive

Middle Georgia Players' "The Night is My Enemy"

MGC Sports . . . Something Special

MGC Warrior sports offered something for just about every sports enthusiast. Defending national baseball champs! • Defending southeastern basketball champs • the Squaws • Warrior cheerleaders • tennis • bat girls • intramurals • all went into making 1980-81 a good year for Warrior sports.

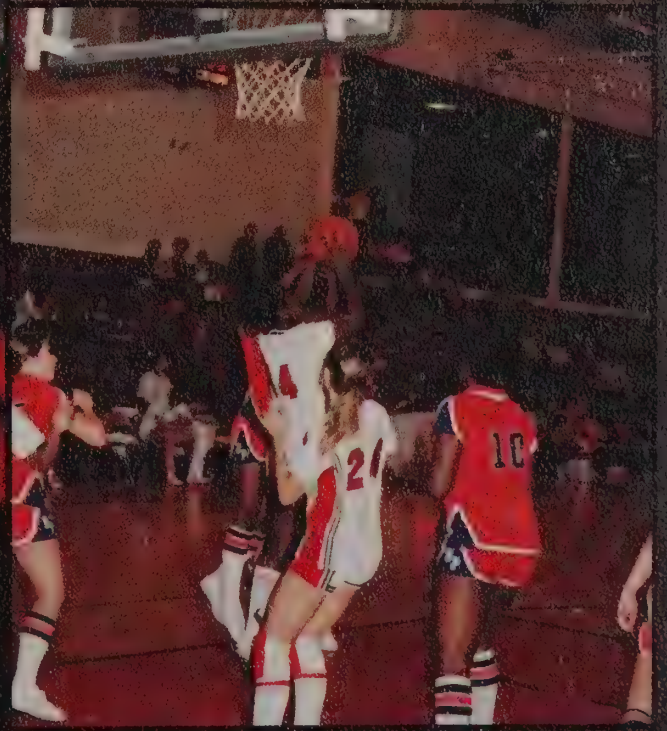

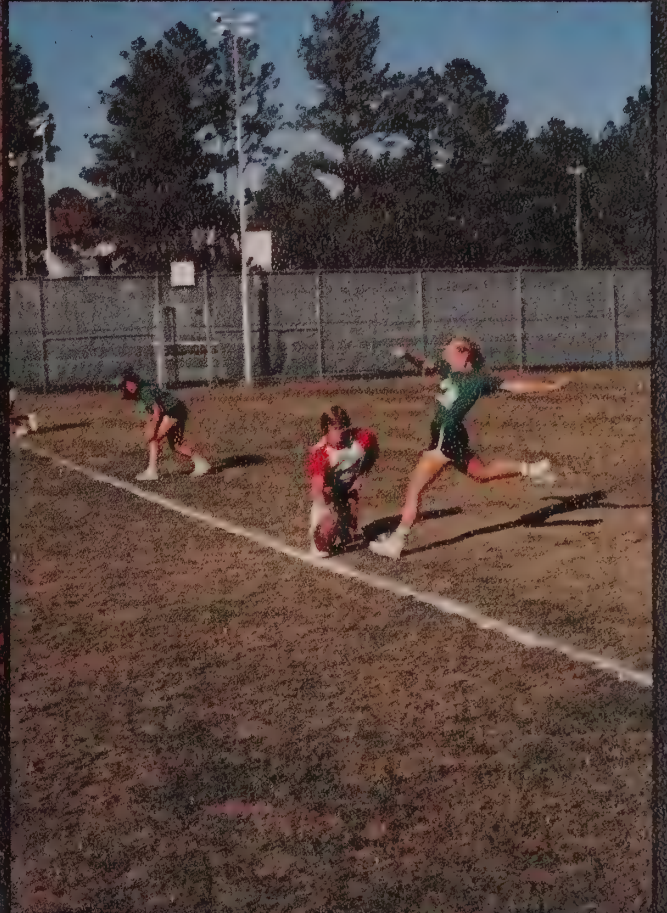

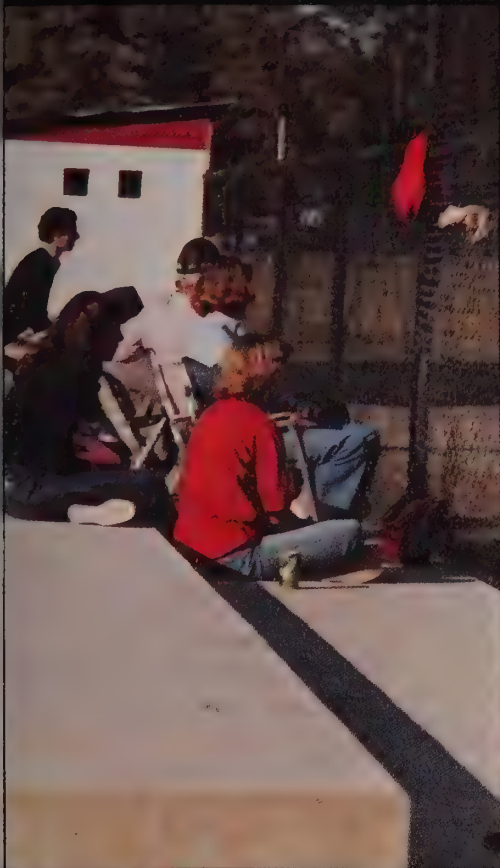

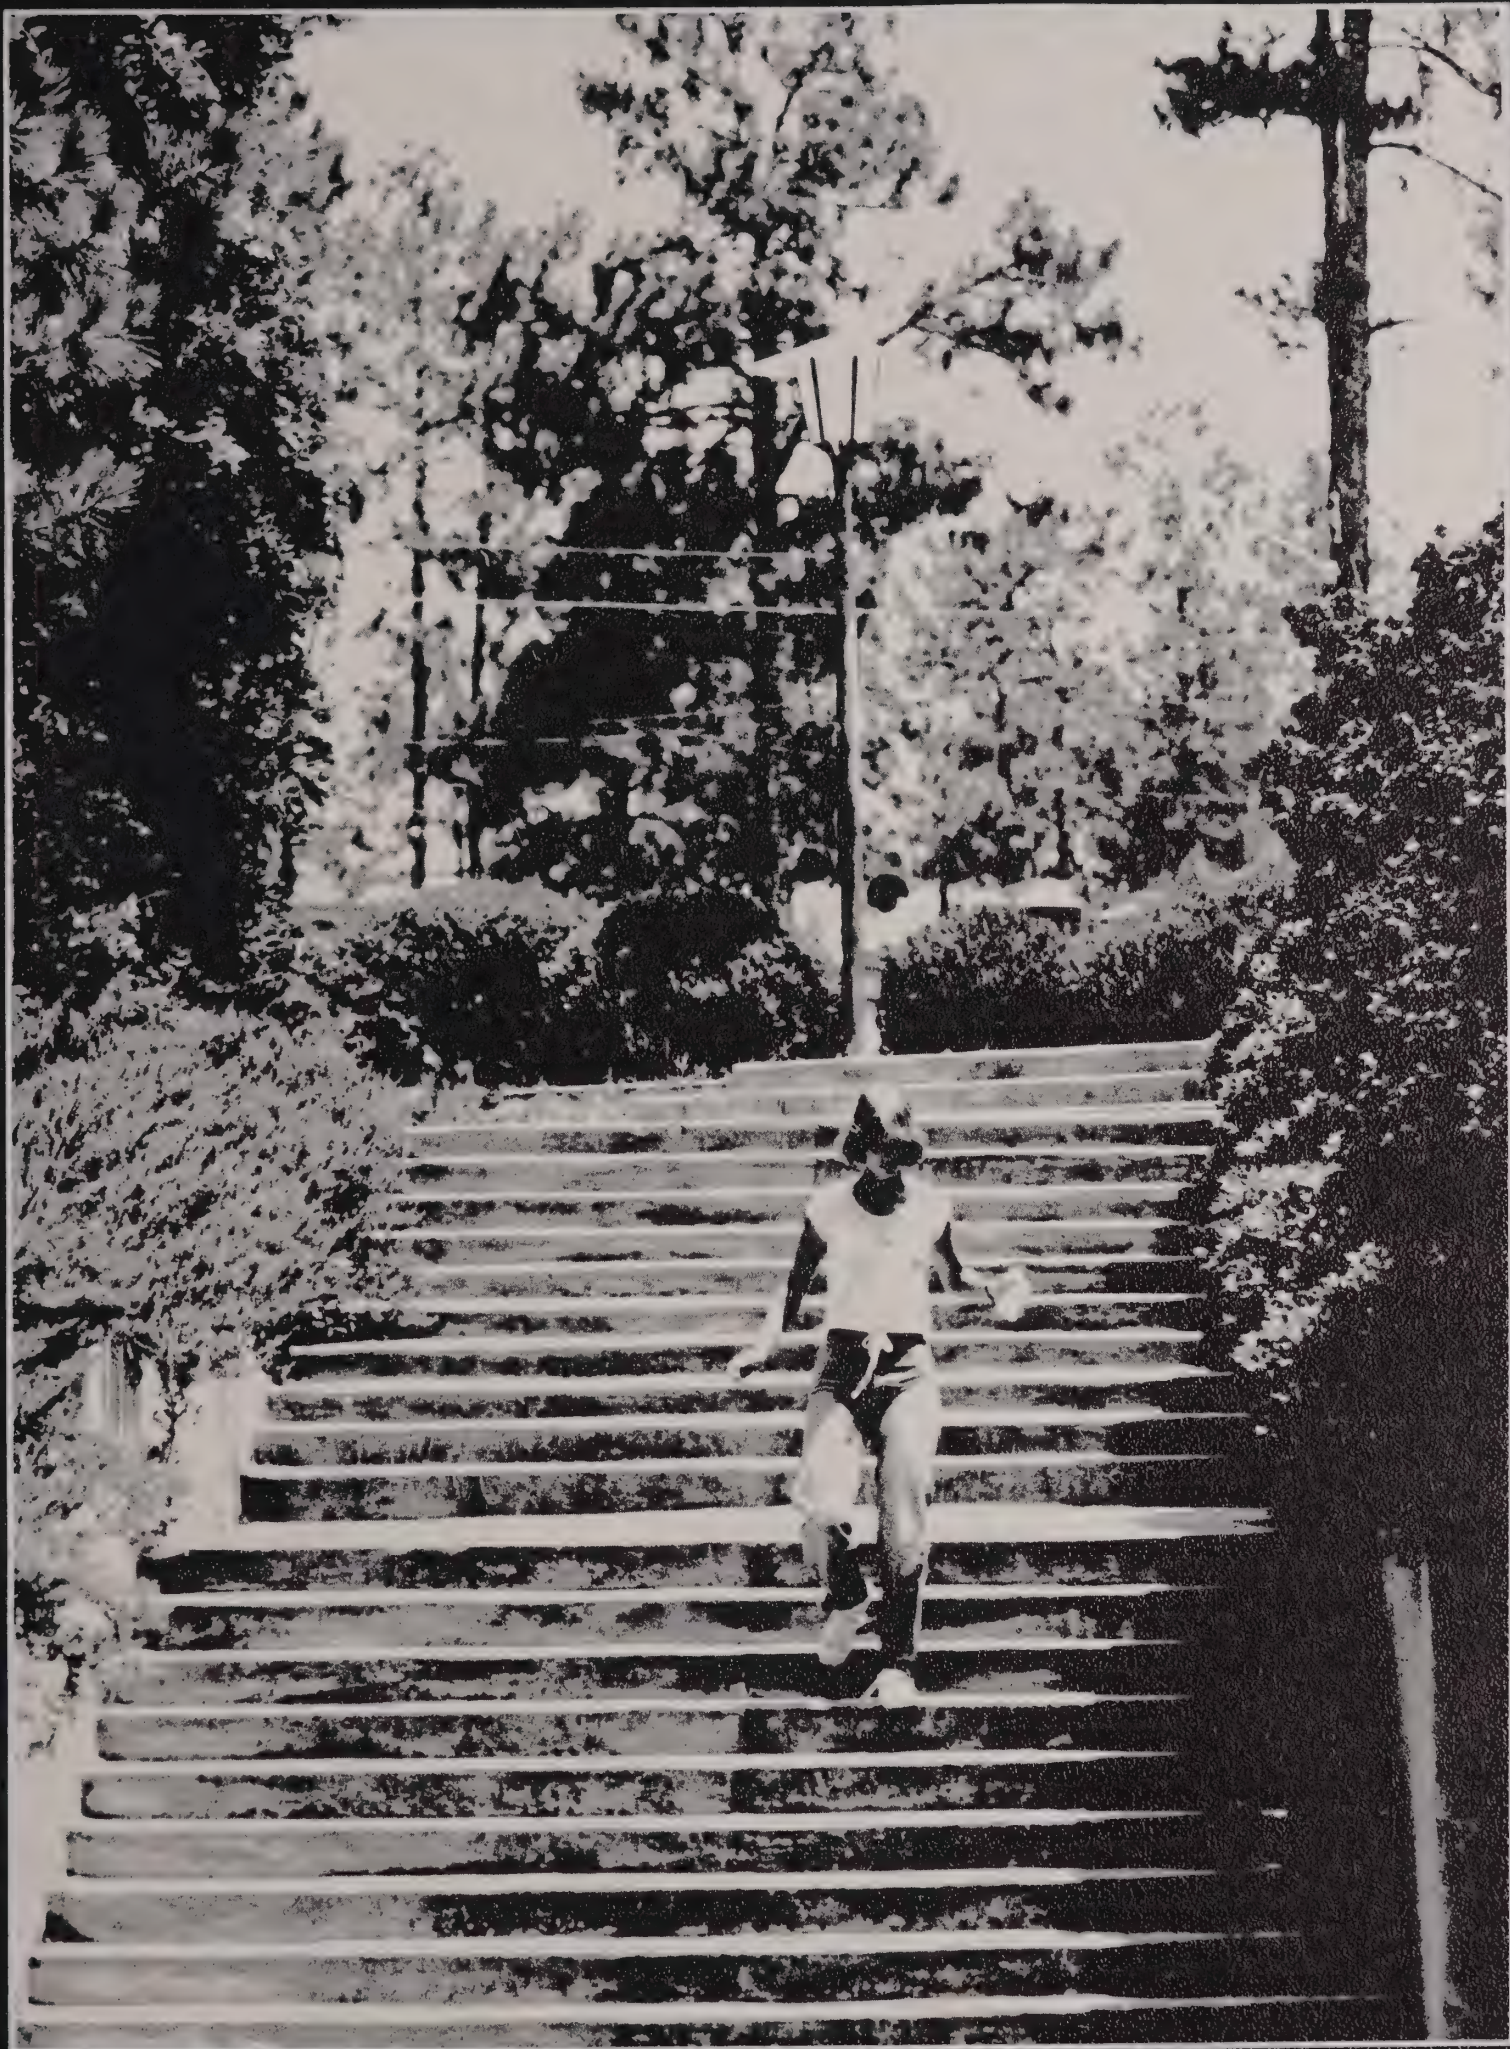

We May Never Pass This Way
Again

FALL QUARTER

Picture Yourself in Fall

Orientation

Orientation is the first real look at college life for the incoming MGC freshman.

Whether it is one of the summer orientations, or the fall program, the trials and tribulations of college life all come to the forefront during orientation.

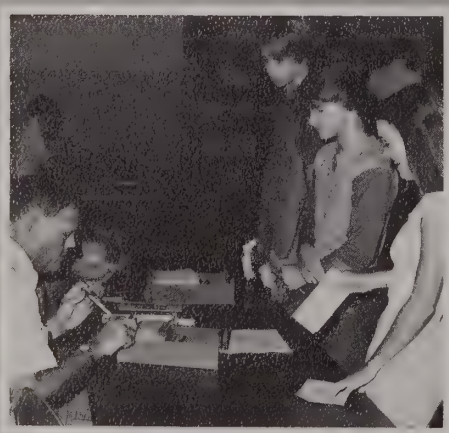

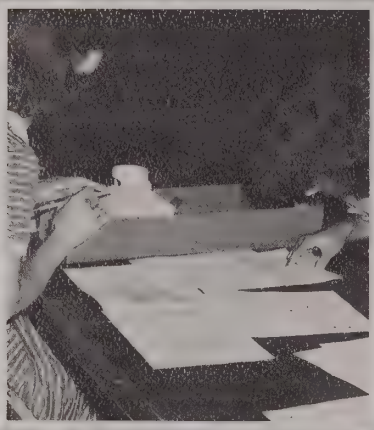

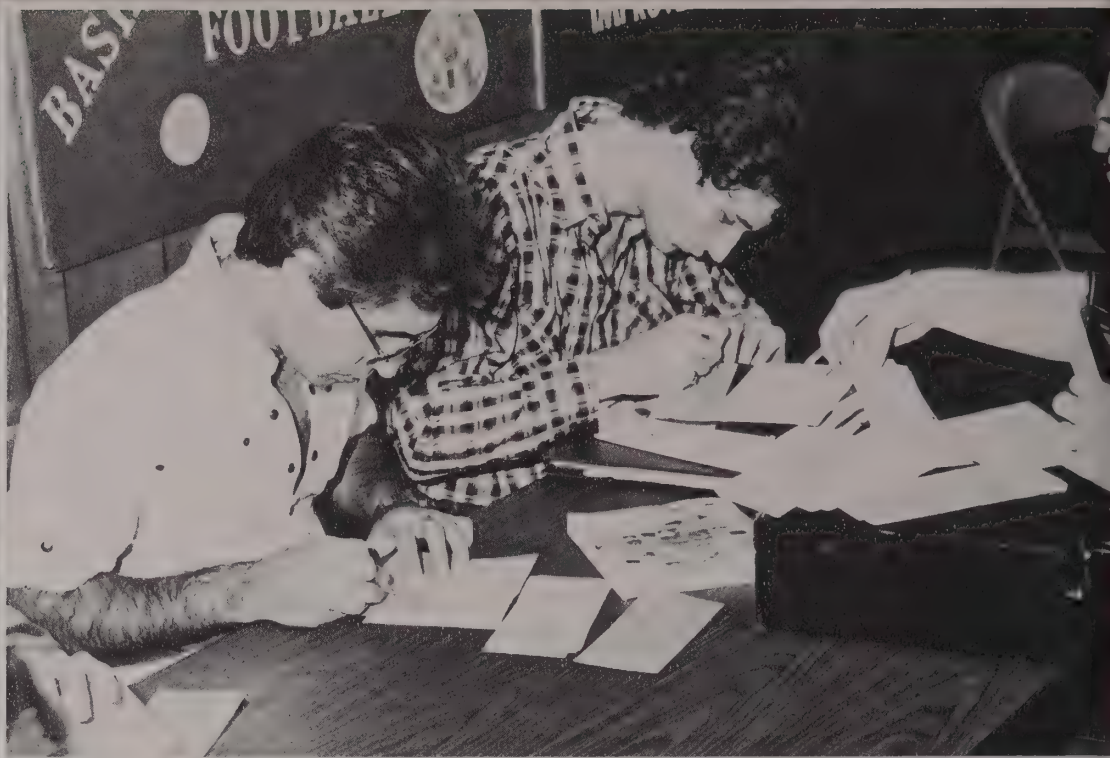

The fall orientation featured the annual SGA-faculty mixer for the new students. Orientation-day one of your college career!

Registration

Registration. It has been called a nightmare. And in its time, it has been called many other things including #@!-%.

For the student who attended a summer orientation program, registration was a breeze. Pick up a parking decal. Have a yearbook and ID car photo made. Arrange for a meal ticket. But for the first-time student who did not attend a summer orientation program, registration was a different matter.

"If this (registration) is any indication of college life, I'll never make it," one freshman was heard to say • Long lines • Short tempers • Wrong lines • Wrong rooms • Wrong forms • All go into making first quarter registration something to remember (or something to forget)!

New Student/ Faculty Reception

KOLISCH

The name Kolisch has become almost as much a part of Middle Georgia College orientation as ID Cards and registration. Kolisch, billed as the World's fastest hypnotist, astounded the fall quarter orientation students with his feats of mind-reading, ESP, and hypnotism.

Kolisch's demonstration of mind-reading while totally blindfolded was truly amazing! His control of the hypnotic sense produced unbelievable results as he made over a dozen MGC students act and have feelings conjured up only in their subconscious minds. Kolisch truly spellbinding!

Vocal Ensemble Tours Europe

The Middle Georgia College Vocal Ensemble spent the first two weeks of September touring Europe as official Ambassadors of Good Will for the State of Georgia.

The group consisted of 12 ensemble members and 20 relatives and friends, including Dr. Louis C. Alderman and his family.

The ensemble performed at Canterbury Cathedral, Ramstein AFB in Germany, and Wesley Chapel in London. Stops included Innsbrook, Salzburg and Oberammergau, where the troupe attended the Passion Play.

SGA Elections

The 1980-81 MGC Student Government Association could never be called "ordinary!"

As students returned to MGC in September, they found that SGA president Shan Young had resigned to take a scholarship at a university. Elected vice president, Jim Walsh was then elevated to president. Debbie Engle held the secretary's position, while Gloria McKinnon held the treasurer's position.

The first order of business for the new officers was the selection of SGA senators. Elections netted 15 senators for the year. Elected senators included: Laura Anderson, Sammy Benefield, Ed Cleveland, Mike Cole, Toni Conner, Beth Grimes, Liz Henderson, Terry Jones, Robin Elmore, Patty Langston, Debra Moore, Paul Nichols, Marques Prescott, Anne Smith, and Jeff White.

Cole received the SGA vote to become vice president to fill the empty slot. Ralph Stevens then was appointed as senator. He later resigned and was replaced by David Tew.

Gloria McKinnon failed to complete her year as treasurer when she resigned after graduation in March.

Air Force Reserve Band Performs at MGC

The United State Air Force Reserve Band from Warner Robins AFB performed in Morris Gymnasium on October 7 as the opening event of Middle Georgia College's 1980-81 Fine Arts Series.

53rd Annual MGC Fall Convocation

The 53rd annual Fall Convocation held October 7 officially marked the beginning of the 1980-81 academic year at Middle Georgia College.

Dr. Charles Holt, noted lecturer and retired colonel in the U.S. Army, was guest speaker. Dr. Holt retired from the military with 30 years of service. Part of his duties included serving as professor of Military Science at the University of Tennessee. Dr. Holt also spoke at several MGC religious activities as part of Religious Emphasis Week.

Bloodmobile

The American Red Cross Bloodmobile came to Middle Georgia College twice during the 1980-1981 school year.

Both times the students gave a good showing with Red Cross collecting 106 pints Fall quarter and 124 pints Spring quarter. The Baptist Student Union was the top donating club on both occasions. The Bloodmobile is an annual happening at MGC and is coordinated by Miss Ellen Willham, Director of Student Health Services.

ROTC Returns To MGC

After a five-year absence, ROTC returned to MGC.

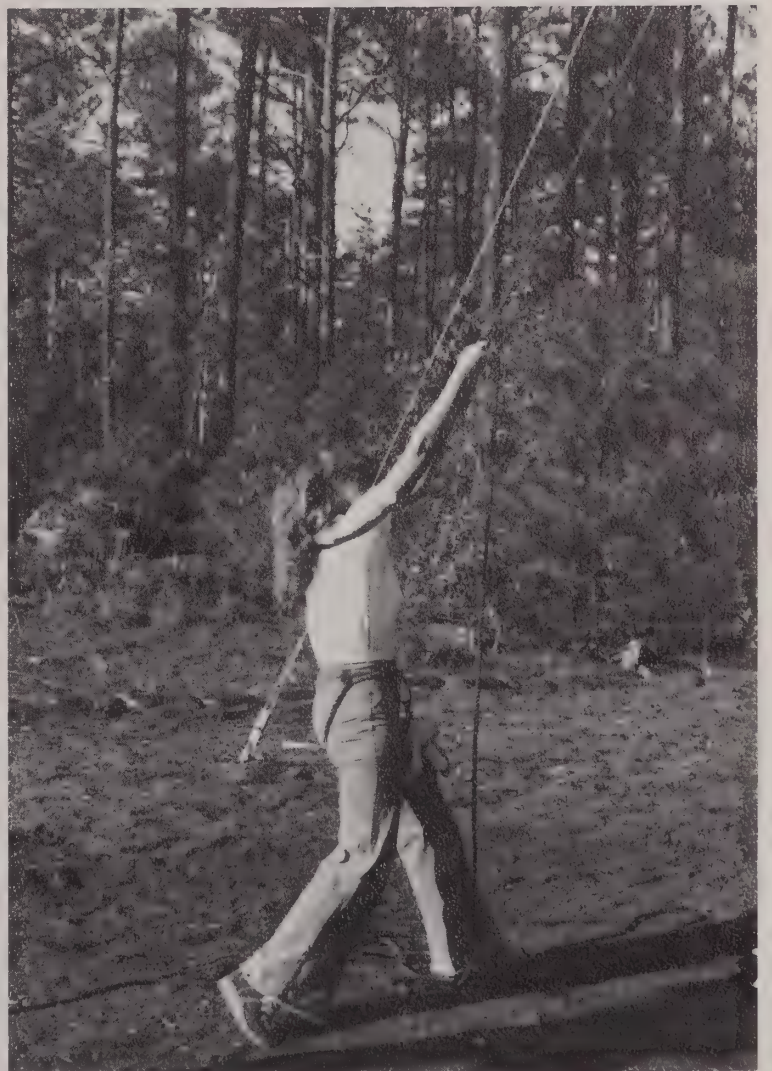

Military Science, ROTC, was a part of the MGC program in the early 70's but was dropped in 1976. The program, which can lead to a commission in the services, offers interested students the chance to earn college credit and eventually college scholarships.

Under the direction of SFC James Powers and Capt. Emory Atwell, the program is part of the Mercer University Program.

ROTC students participate in programs of mountaineering, survival and advanced contemporary Army.

Warriors Take MGC Tip-Off Tournament

The MGC Warriors brought home their own Tip-Off trophy November 5 and 6 as they took the 13th annual Middle Georgia College Tip-Off Tourney.

The Warriors hosted ABAC, Spartanburg, and Columbia South Carolina. MGC made quick work of Spartanburg CC 84-66 while ABAC took the Columbia team. That set up MGC vs. ABAC in the title game.

MGC took the Stallions 88-66 to bring home the tournament trophy for the Warriors. They led by as many as 25 points to embarrass the ABAC Stallions.

"The Night Is My Enemy" was the fall production of the Middle Georgia Players. A who-done-it mystery by Fred Carmichael, "Enemy" is the story of a town besieged by a killer destroying imperfection. The play starred Kim Holland as the blind Roane Shepperley, Steve Smith as Ora, Kim Coley, Marcia Crozier, Mitchell Sellers, Patti Langston, Liz Henderson, Michael Patrick, Robert Cordova, and Ralph Stevens, Nelson Carpenter directed.

Homecoming 1980

The Rainbow Connection

Anticipation for the annual Homecoming events is always a highlight of fall.

Work began early in the week on parade floats and dorm decorations. The streets of downtown Cochran were lined for the 1980 Homecoming parade. Talmadge Hall took top honors for best float, and the Cheerleaders had the best-decorated car. Haynes and Harris Halls were judged best-decorated dorms.

The Warriors lost the Homecoming game 102-108 to USC-Lancaster.

Rosemary Brewton received the 1980 Homecoming Queen crown. Edie Edwards was voted her freshman Maid of Honor.

The Tempest

The National Players came to Middle Ga. winter quarter as a part of the MGC Fine Arts series. They brought to their audience an imaginative and exciting tale written by Shakespeare called The Tempest.

This year-round touring company has brought many good productions to colleges and universities all over the world. They are a self managed group that does it's own lighting, sound, and directing. Many of the Player's productions are also original adaptations of other famous works. This makes for their unique and alluring character.

This year's program netted over $75 profit for the cause. Valentines, flowers, and sweethearts all came together for MDA.

Sweetheart Dance

Valentines Day was again marked in 1981 by the annual MGC Sweetheart dance.

The dance has become almost as much a tradition at MGC as Valentines Day itself.

During the dance, MGC's 10 freshmen sweethearts were presented. The Sweetheart Court was selected earlier in the week. During the dance, Edie Edwards was crowned as MGC's Sweetheart for 1981.

Kernel Takes 14 Georgia College Press Awards For 1980

Kernel Staff members Edie Edwards, Harvey Gilbert, Jeff Whitfield, Amelia Morrison, Lee Gwyn, and Brad Engle display 1980 GCPA awards.

The Kernel, MGC's student newspaper took a total of 14 Georgia College Press Association awards for 1980 at the annual GCPA conference held in Athens in late February.

In overall paper competition, the Kernel took first place in layout and design and in sports coverage. The paper took second place honors in general excellence, editorials, and advertising. The paper placed third in features and editorials.

In individual awards, Amelia Morrison, 1979-80 editor, took a first place in interpretive reporting. Miss Morrison, along with Bill Gates took second place in features. Suzanne McNease took first place awarded for best review, while Anne Willcox, summer editor, took a second place in sports. Harvey Gilbert, photo editor, took a second place in photography.

Brad Engle took third place in the annual GCPA writing contest held during the meeting.

Ken Joyner and George Hinton were advisors for the publications. The judging is based on the calendar year.

Kernel and Hilltopper Named Second-Best Publications In Southeast For 1980

Michael Patrick, 1980-81 Kernel Editor, and Donna Scott, 1980-81 Hilltopper Editor.

Both the Kernel, MGC's student newspaper, and the Hilltopper, MGC's student yearbook, were named as the second-best junior college publications in the Southeast as part of the Southeastern Regional Press Institute held at Savannah State College.

The Hilltopper award marks the second award in as many years for that publication.

The Kernel judging was based on fall quarter, 1980 papers. The Hilltopper judging was based on the entire 1980 publication.

Warrors Go 18-12 On Season; Place Fourth In Region

The Warriors started the 1980-81 season as the team to beat. The Warriors were the defending Southeastern champs, and they were the team to beat.

As is with most junior college teams, every few years is "a building year." 1980-81 was a building year for the Warriors.

They finished the regular season ranked seventh in the state with a 17-11 and 11-9 conference record. At any point in the season, it was toss-up as to which team would beat which team on which night.

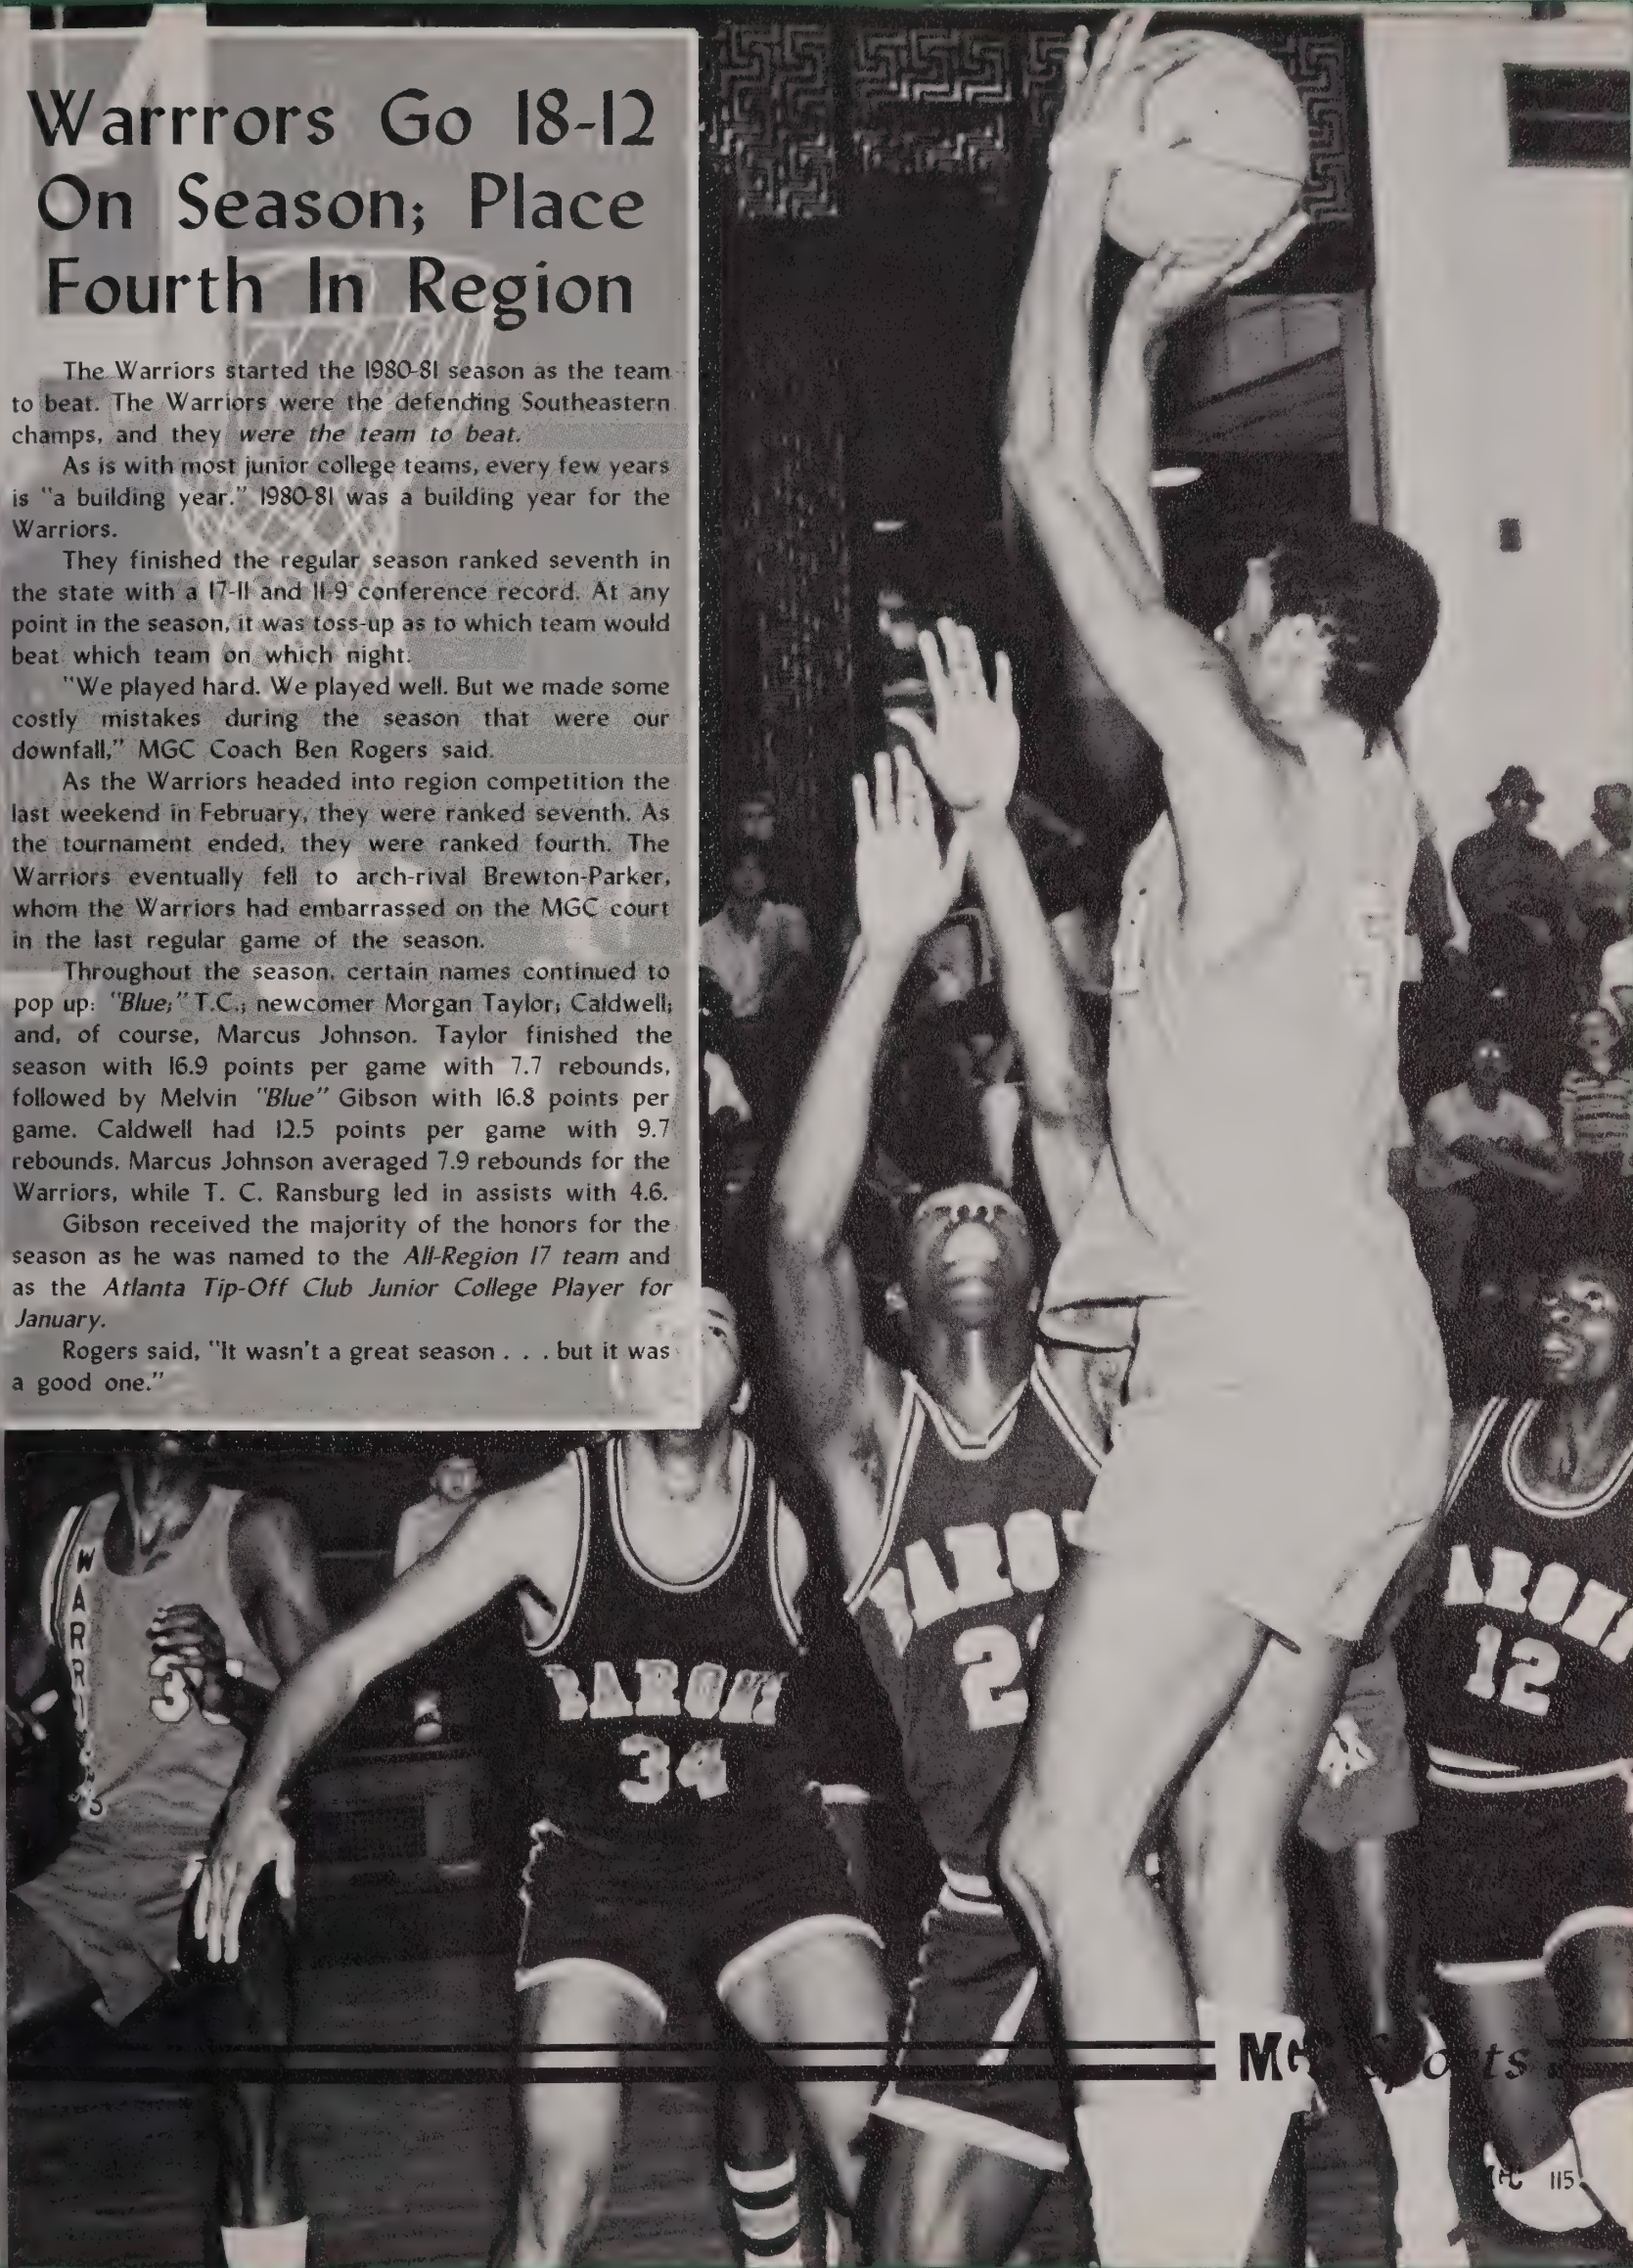

"We played hard. We played well. But we made some costly mistakes during the season that were our downfall," MGC Coach Ben Rogers said.

As the Warriors headed into region competition the last weekend in February, they were ranked seventh. As the tournament ended, they were ranked fourth. The Warriors eventually fell to arch-rival Brewton-Parker, whom the Warriors had embarrassed on the MGC court in the last regular game of the season.

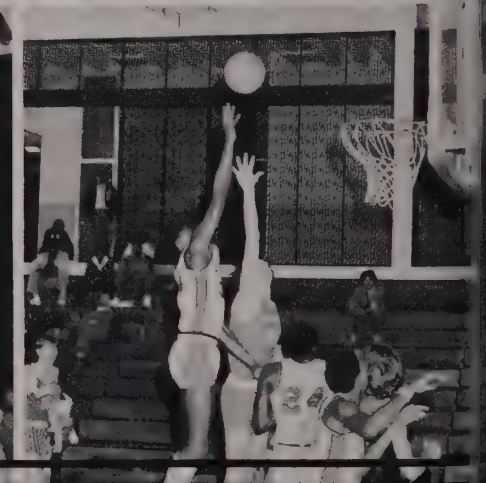

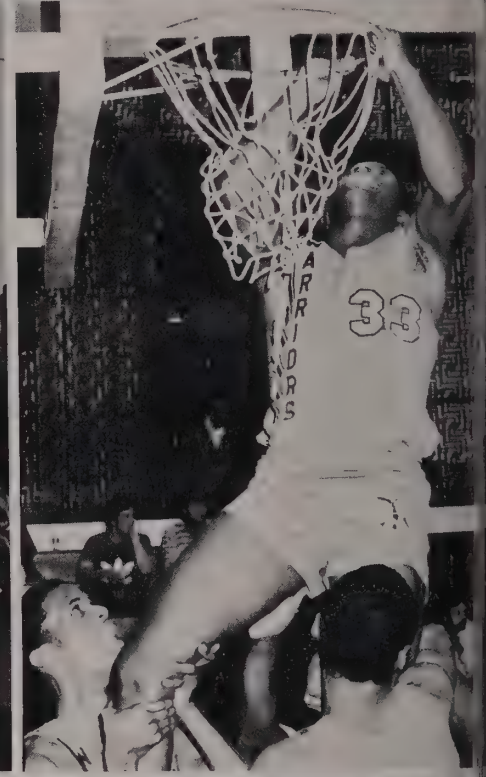

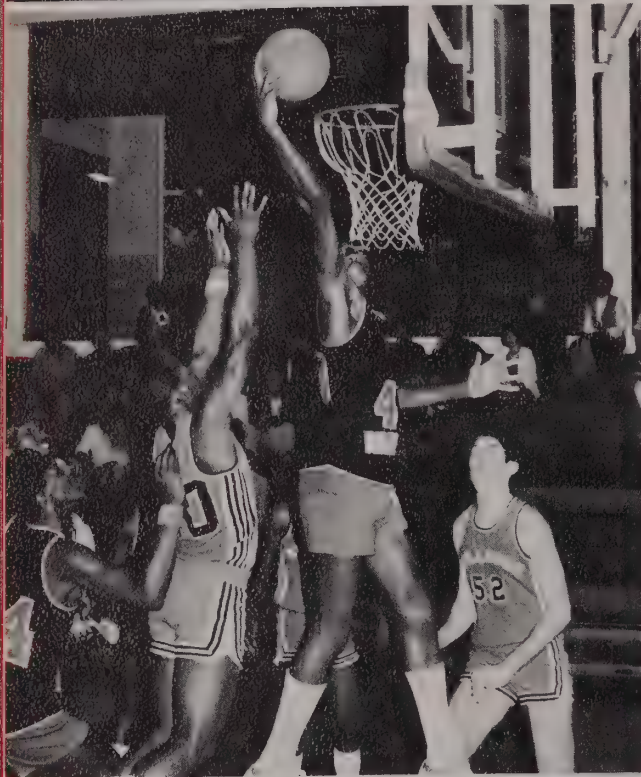

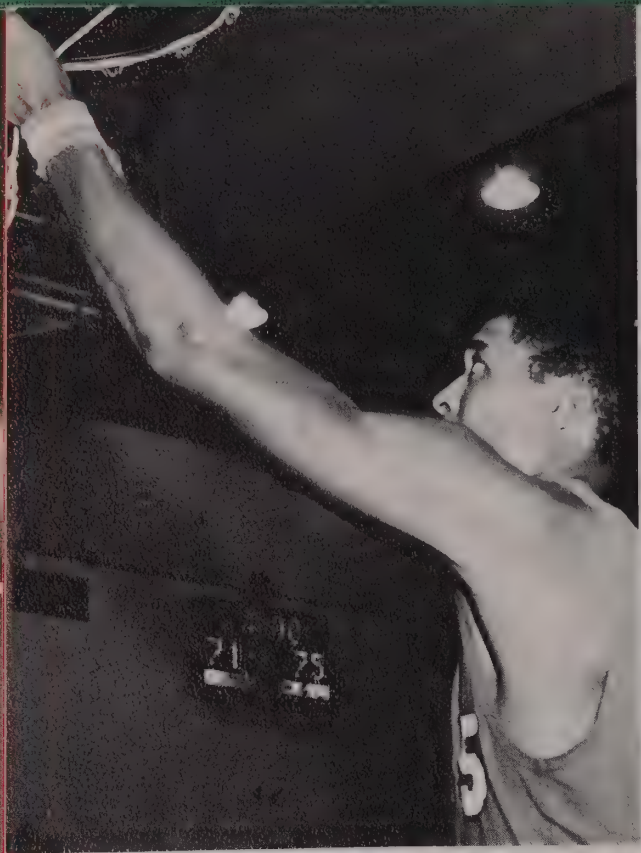

Throughout the season, certain names continued to pop up: "Blue," T.C., newcomer Morgan Taylor, Caldwell, and, of course, Marcus Johnson. Taylor finished the season with 16.9 points per game with 7.7 rebounds, followed by Melvin "Blue" Gibson with 16.8 points per game. Caldwell had 12.5 points per game with 9.7 rebounds. Marcus Johnson averaged 7.9 rebounds for the Warriors, while T. C. Ransburg led in assists with 4.6.

Gibson received the majority of the honors for the season as he was named to the All-Region 17 team and as the Atlanta Tip-Off Club Junior College Player for January.

Rogers said, "It wasn't a great season . . . but it was a good one."

Women's Basketball - The Squaws

Squaws Finish Season 1-17 On The Year

The Squaws of Middle Georgia had less than an impressive year in 1980-81. The Squaws finished the season 1-17 for the year.

"We just didn't have what it takes this year," Coach Jim Parks said. "We just couldn't put it together."

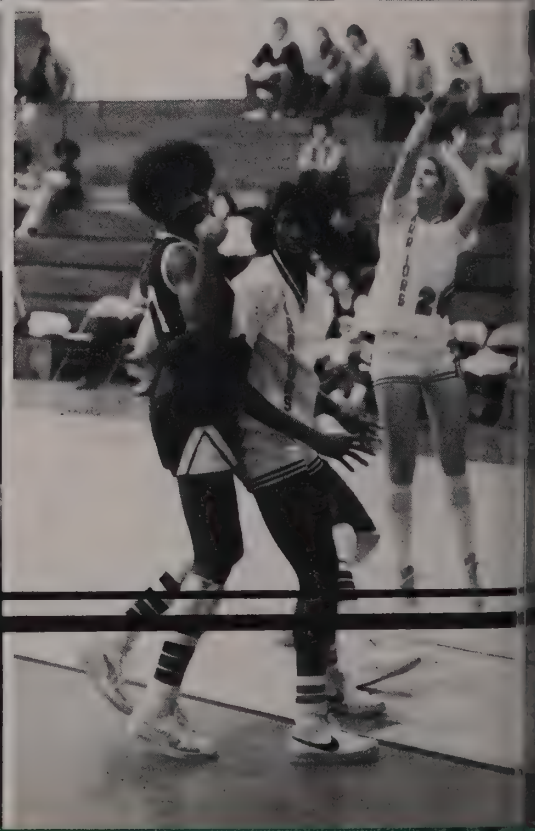

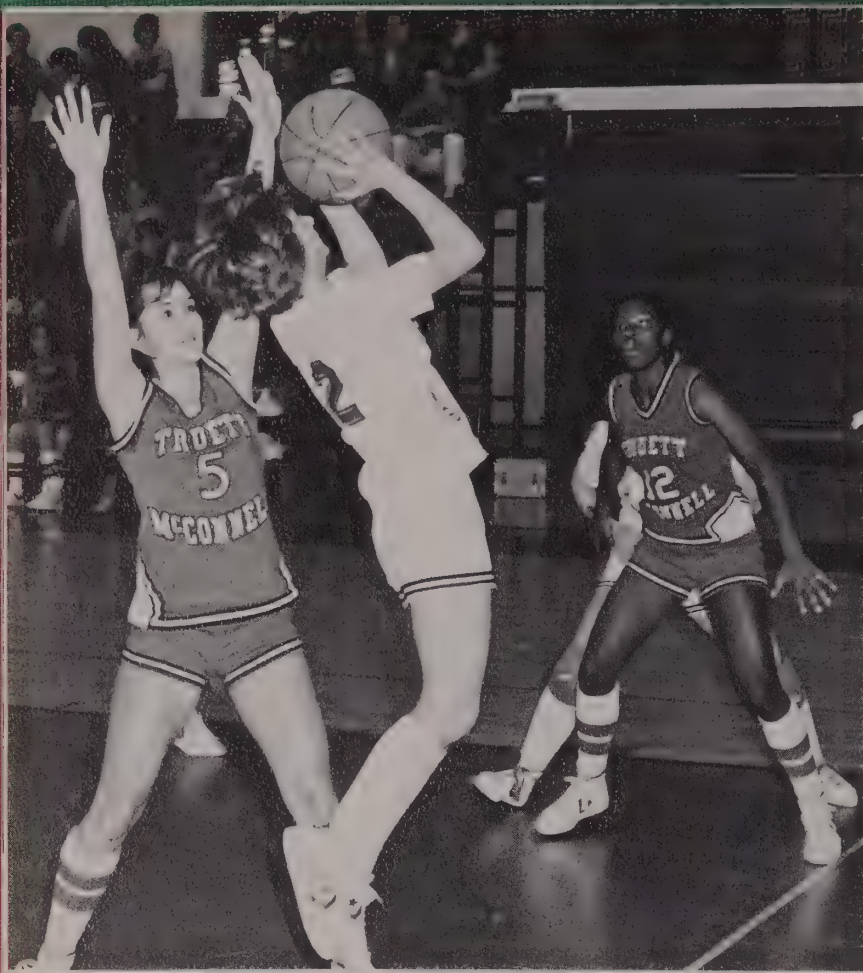

The Squaws tried their very best. They didn't ever quit. But as the gun sounded on the last game, they found themselves 1-17 for the year.

That 1-17 record gave the Squaws a firm hold on the cellar position in Georgia Junior College women's basketball.

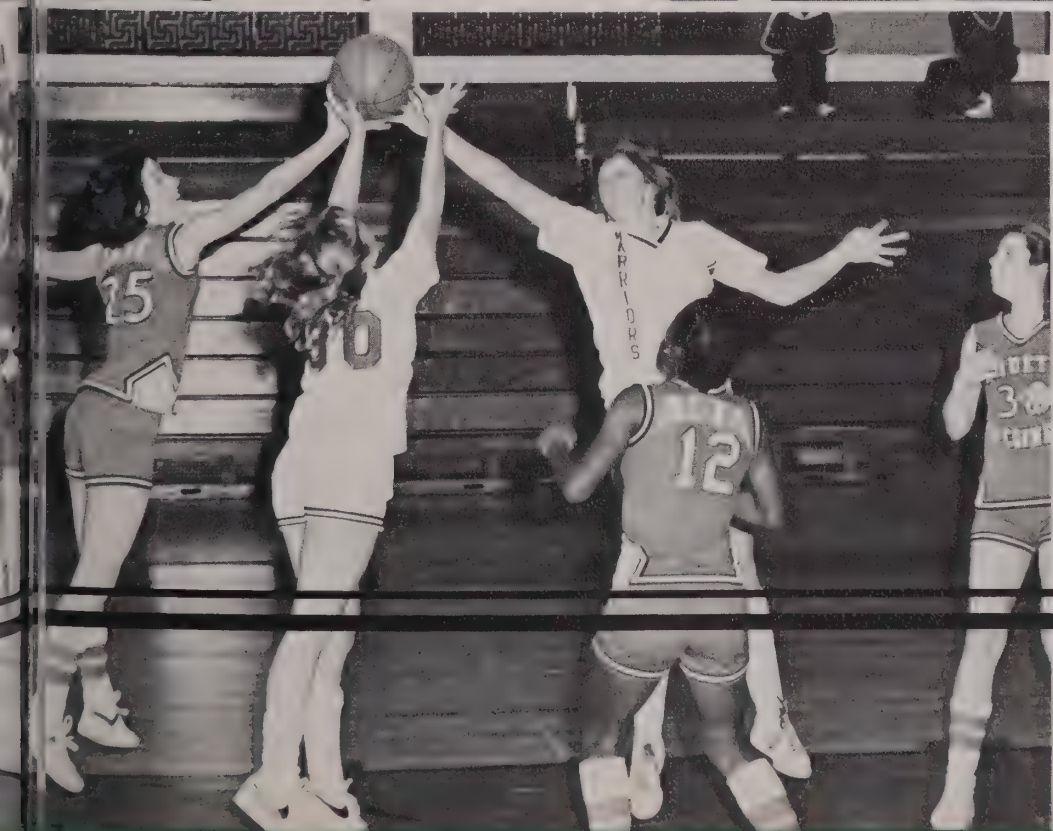

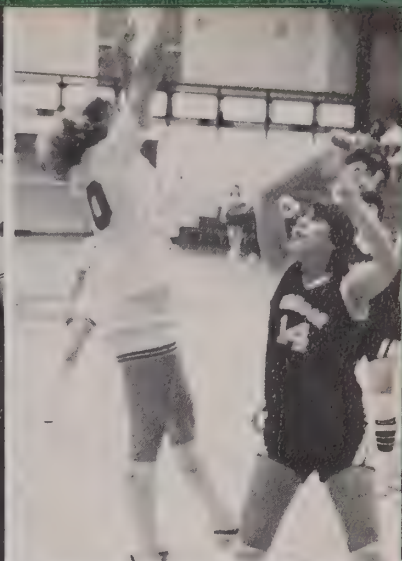

The Squaws lacked experience. They lacked size. And they lacked numbers. Cindi Floyd was the only 1979-80 Lady Warrior to return as a Squaw. And none of the Squaws had the awesome size of some of the competition. As the season ended, the numbers had shrunk to only six.

So, the Squaws completed the 1980-81 season 1-17, ranked at the bottom of the state.

Warriors Go 41-6 for 1981 Season

The Middle Georgia College Warriors came into the 1980-81 season as the defending national champs for the past two seasons.

They had an almost impossible task to complete - become only the second team in the history of NJCAA to win three back-to-back national tournaments.

As the Warriors began the 1981 season, they were ranked as the best team in the nation in pre-season. As the season progressed, they dropped as low as ninth and finally as high as third place.

Four losses early in the season-two to arch-rival ABAC-seemed to throw a damper on the Warriors. After the two losses to ABAC, they went 31 games before losing again.

The Warriors took the South Georgia Division easily. They took the Georgia title by being the top team in the state. But when it came to Region 17, DeKalb South was MGC's match.

MGC had taken DeKalb South five times during the season, but the South team mustered up enough needed power to take the Warriors in a back-to-back loss situation to shatter any hopes of returning to the nationals.

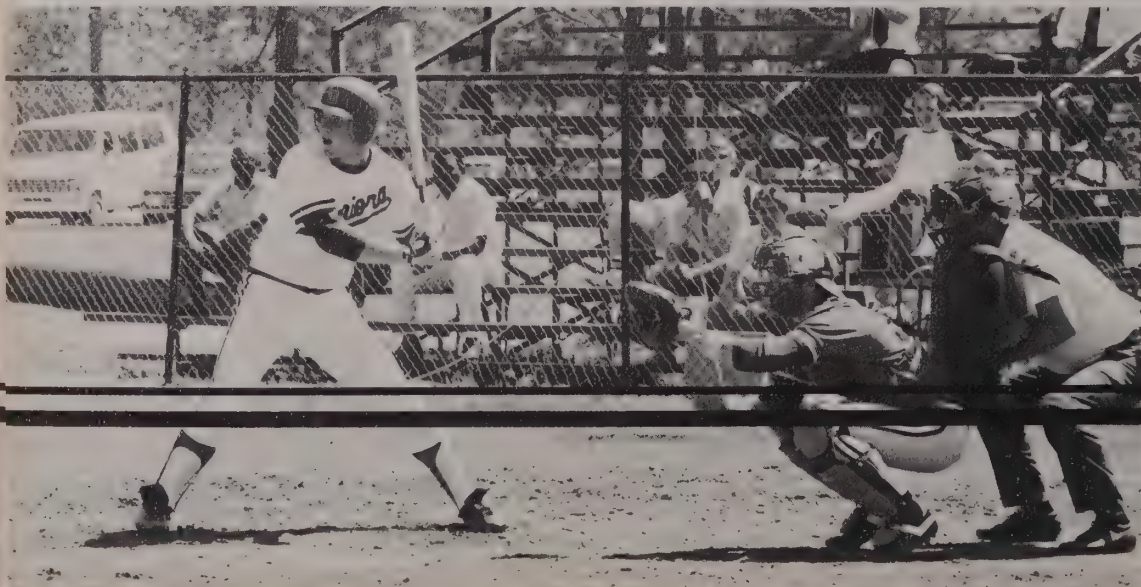

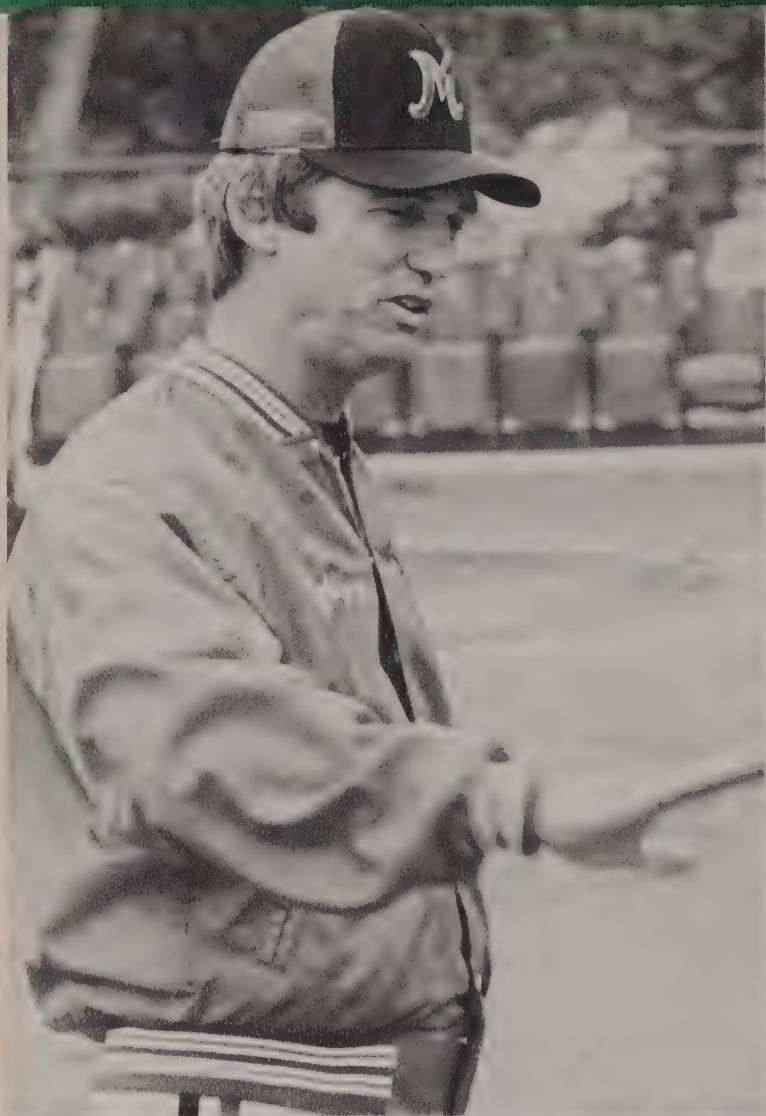

For the season, the Warriors were 41-6 with an unbelievable 31-game winning streak.

In individual honors, Earnest Riles, Glenn Davis, and Jeff Treadway received All (South Georgia) Division, All Regional and All Tournament honors. Gene Morgan also had All (South Georgia) Division honors.

Rick Wiggins received All Region honors.

Sitting down to write this, the final page of the 1981 HILL TOPPER, gives me a chance to reflect over the past five years and to remember.

My two years at Middle Georgia hold some of my fondest memories. Being a student at MGAC has taught me much. I have learned about independence. About life. And about living with many different kinds of people.

There were good times, there were bad times. There were happy times. And, of course, there were sad times. The memories captured at MGC will always remain an important part of my past. I would not take anything for the friends that I have made here at MGC, and I appreciate everything that everyone has done for me.

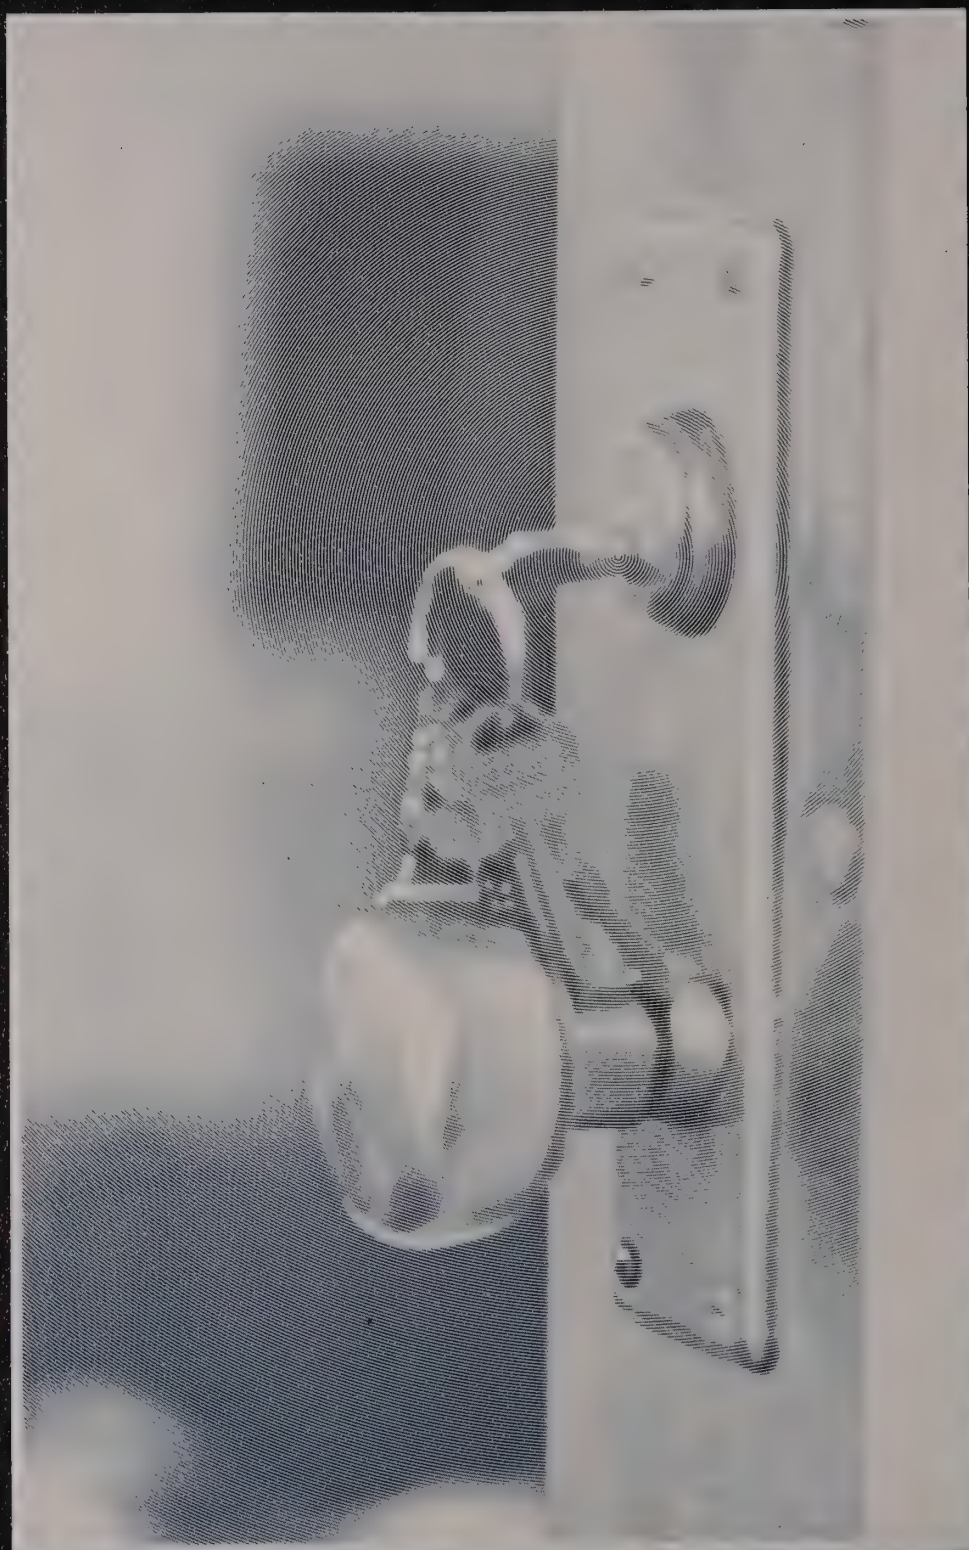

The memories of the good times stand out in my mind — the afternoons, the party nights, the school functions. And of course, making your own fun in Cochran. The bad memories are few, but they aren't

...last two years on the HILLTOP, you have truly been an expert. Being editor this long a time, your position has shown a great deal of responsibility.
